(7) M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur T. A. RAMALINGA CHETTIYAR Avargal.
(8) Mr. W. ALEXANDER.
(9) Mr. A. M. MACDOUGALL.

Read scheme for the undertaking of an intensive educational campaign in connexion with hookworm in selected districts involving an extra cost to Government of Rs. 13,500 per annum (the remaining half will be borne by the International Health Board of New York).

The Committee discussed the case with Dr. Kendrick who was invited to be present, and by a majority recommended the acceptance of the proposal. They further recommended (1) that the Local Self-Government Department might be asked to send them for scrutiny the detailed budget prepared by Dr. Kendrick for office and field equipment and miscellaneous charges, and (2) that the allowances to sub-assistant surgeons and compounders should be dealt with as part of the general question.

2. Read proposals for the retention of the services of Mr. J. P. Trumble as adviser to Government on vocational education.

The proposal was discussed with the Hon'ble the Minister for Education and the Committee by a majority recommended the continuance of the appointment till the 31st March 1923.

3. Read scheme for the teaching of bio-chemistry in the Madras Medical College involving a total expenditure of about Rs. 84,000 to be spread over a period of three years. The expenditure in 1922–23 would amount to about Rs. 33,100 for which a supplementary demand would be moved.

The Committee recommended the acceptance of the proposal.

4. Read scheme for the provision of an electric installation in the Rayapuram Medical School.

The Committee recommended the acceptance of the proposal.

5. Read proposals for the payment of arrears of medical contributions from Government to the Malabar District Board, which had not been claimed in proper time by the District Board through an oversight (about Rs. 12,768).

The Committee recommended the acceptance of the proposal.

6. Read scheme for the installation of a refrigerating plant with a cold room at the Agricultural College, Coimbatore (about Rs. 19,000).

The Committee would request that information be furnished as to the capital and recurring cost of the refrigerating plant installed in the Presidency College and as to how it is working.
